DIVIDER, SCREEN & PODIUM

The Reining Center was constructed in the summer of 2004. The funds for this beautiful building were provided by the estate of Ms. Leona Reining and land was generously donated by John Mickelson and Glee Springer.

Soundproof dividers are available to create three rooms perfect for family reunions, class reunions business meetings, bridal/baby showers, or other small get togethers. These dividers can be opened up to create one large banquet space for weddings, business dinners, and more.

Our central location makes the Reining Center ideal for your next event! Two hotels and several restaurants are within walking distance. Our lovely neighborhood includes a golf course, aquatic center, recreation trail, fishing, hunting, ATV park, specialty shops and much more.

Make the Reining Center in Toledo, Iowa the destination for your next event. We know you'll be pleased
